

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF WISCONSIN

ANNIKEN PROSSER,

Plaintiff,

v.

Case No. 20-cv-194

ALEX AZAR, in his capacity as Secretary of the United States Department of Health and Human Services,

Defendant.

PLAINTIFF'S MOTION TO DISMISS CLAIMS WITH PREJUDICE TO FACILITATE APPELLATE REVIEW

As discussed during the conference held on October 7, 2020, Mrs. Prosser appreciates this Court's consideration of her motions and the issue of collateral estoppel. Nevertheless, Mrs. Prosser believes that the course of action that best protects her interests is to seek appeal of this Court's decisions denying her motion for summary judgment based on collateral estoppel, granting the Secretary's motion regarding the same as to all of Mrs. Prosser's claims and her request for declaratory judgment (see Dkt. #21), and denying Mrs. Prosser's motion for reconsideration and/or certification under 28 U.S.C. § 1292 (see Dkt. #29).

Accordingly, Mrs. Prosser respectfully moves, pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 41(a)(2), to dismiss with prejudice all of the remaining theories of liability supporting her causes of action and for entry of final judgment on her causes of action based on the Court's ruling as to collateral estoppel, so that Mrs. Prosser may appeal this matter to the Seventh Circuit Court of Appeals without delay.
